

Governmental Audit, Accounting, Financial Reporting & Consulting

New standards and increased reporting responsibilities have placed stringent requirements and demands on governmental entities. These regulations have created the need for governments to employ professional firms that specialize in providing a vast array of services for the governmental sector.

With a dedicated team focused on providing auditing, accounting and consulting services to governmental entities, Mauldin & Jenkins is a recognized and proven leader. On an annual basis, we provide more than 40,000 hours of professional services to over 100 governmental entities. We understand the burdens, issues and complexities placed on governmental organizations' accounting and finance departments.

As trusted advisors, we offer solutions for unique accounting and financial situations so you can focus on the administration and operation of your agency.
